

APPLICATION

How do I apply to study at the University of Genoa as an Erasmus exchange student?

If you want to study at the University of Genoa as an Erasmus student you should be nominated by your home university first. Nominated students need to read the instructions carefully and fill in the online application procedure

If the number of students applying for a place exceeds the number of places available, applications will be processed and accepted in chronological order.

What can I do if my home University does not appear in the application procedure?

Maybe your home University is not a Partner of University of Genoa. Contact your International Relations Office to check if there is an agreement.

How can I send my application form?

You have to ask your home University to send your endorsed application form to the address erasmusapplicationform@unige.it

We cannot accept application forms sent by students' email addresses.

Do I need to know Italian to study at the University of Genoa?

There are many courses and subjects taught in English; if the courses and subjects in your learning agreement are taught in Italian, you do not need to submit a language certificate but University of Genoa offers Italian language courses completely free of charge.

When will I know that I'm accepted as an exchange student?

First make sure that your online application is completed correctly. As soon as you have completed it, you will receive a confirmation email.

Once your home University sends your endorsed application form, you will receive an email stating that you have been accepted.

How can I apply for a traineeship as an Erasmus student?

Erasmus for traineeship at University of Genoa is possible only if there is a valid Interinstitutional agreement signed with your home University.

If your home University nominated you for a traineeship, you have to fill in the online application procedure and submit your learning agreement.

How many months can I apply for? Can I extend/reduce my exchange period?

You can apply first for the number of months indicated in the online application procedure. If you wish to reduce your stay, you can indicate a shorter period directly in the application form (min. 3 months for study and 2 for traineeship)

If you wish to extend your stay, you can use the Request for extension of the Erasmus period A.Y. 2018/19 to get the necessary approval. The maximum exchange period allowed is a full academic year (12 months)
